Amanda Morales_____

2. Position of appellant(s) in the adversary proceeding or bankruptcy case that is the subject of this appeal:

Motion for standing and class certification (personal injury and wrongful death claims right by trial in district court)

→ Defendant → Debtor

→ Other (describe) ☒ Creditor

→ Trustee

→ Other (describe) _____

Part 2: Identify the subject of this appeal

1. Describe the judgment—or the appealable order or decree—from which the appeal is taken:

- Personal injury claims in this case have different interests and the Unsecured Creditors Committee for the creditors hasn't protected interests of claims unrelated to the opioid crisis. Motion for class certification was objected by the debtors and judge Sean Lane denied class certification at hearing 12/12/2024. Wrongful death claims must be tried in district court, not bankruptcy court: 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(5) This statute requires that personal injury and wrongful death claims be tried in the district court where the bankruptcy case is pending, or in the district court where the claim arose.
Jury trial rights

28 U.S.C. § 1411(a) preserves any applicable jury trial rights for individuals asserting a wrongful death claim. A wrongful death judgment may not be considered a debt of the bankruptcy estate and may not be dischargeable in bankruptcy. This is because a wrongful death claim belongs exclusively to the decedent's heirs and is not part of the decedent's estate

2. State the date on which the judgment—or the appealable order or decree—was entered:

December 12, 2024_____

Part 3: Identify the other parties to the appeal

List the names of all parties to the judgment—or the appealable order or decree—from which the appeal is taken and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of their attorneys (attach additional pages if necessary):
